Vice - chair Report

On oa.org you can find a lot of great information. Click under News and Events, and they have A Step Ahead News where you can find the results ofa survey of 3,400 OA members, a request for living abstinent insights to be submitted by March 3, all updates about literature etc.

If you look under News and Events and click on Event Calendar, you'll get an amazing list of virtual workshops and meetings all around the country and world, including events for Unity Day near the end of this month.

Happy Fellowshipping!!
